

Building Effective Teams

This programme will enable delegates to focus on the dynamics of their own teams and consider leadership and teambuilding issues which will improve individual and group performance. It is highly experiential.

Suitable for:

All managers and team leaders

Objectives:

- Recognise what makes an effective team
- Identify roles within a team
- Understand the difference between leadership and management
- Appreciate the important of effective leadership

Programme:

- What makes teams effective
- The theory of team roles
- What makes a leader
- Leadership versus management
- Leadership models
- The stages of team development
- Situational leadership
- Leadership styles
- Practical exercises
- Group discussions
- Ideas to take back to team

Duration:

Two days